

RESOLUTION NO. 121
Construction Training School 50th Anniversary

WHEREAS, the Associated General Contractors of Missouri (AGCMO) is celebrating the 50th anniversary of the Construction Training School on October 14, 2016; and

WHEREAS, the Construction Training School was the first such school to have multiple union apprenticeship training programs in the same facility under joint cooperation between labor and management; and

WHEREAS, the Construction Training School has helped to provide the skilled craft workers for the construction industry throughout the greater St. Louis area and the state of Missouri that have contributed to the growth and vitality of the region; and

WHEREAS, the highly skilled craft professionals trained through the efforts of the members of the AGC of Missouri and the Unions, display the skill, teamwork, and innovative spirit necessary to make lasting and significant contributions to their communities by building the facilities that support and enhance the high quality of life in our state.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Aldermen of the City of St. Louis that we pause in our deliberations to mark the 50th anniversary of the Associated General Contractors of Missouri's Construction Training School and to thank the group for its contributions to the vitality of our region. We further direct the Clerk of this Board to spread a copy of this Resolution across the minutes of these proceedings and to prepare a commemorative copy to the end that it may be presented at a time and place deemed appropriate by the Sponsor.

Introduced on the 23rd day of September, 2016, by:

The Honorable Scott Ogilvie, Alderman, 24th Ward

Adopted the 23rd day of September, 2016, as attested by:

Timothy O'Connell
Clerk, Board of Aldermen

Lewis E. Reed
President, Board of Aldermen